____ Ten Women of the Bible Who Changed the World (Amos Hall, Room 1)

“Some of their stories are inspiring. In a society in which the contributions of women were often overlooked, their actions stood out for one reason or another to the writers of Scripture. Others, marked by scandal and intrigue, provide a cautionary tale for us. Yes, all of their stories are different and yet all of them provide lessons for us today.”

____ Through the Eyes of a Former Slave: Great Stories of the Old Covenant (MJB Annex, Room 1)

Charlotte Jefferies says to us, “Come, join me as I take you back to Charleston, South Carolina, to my father’s forge in the early 1800’s. Sit with me on the woodpile as he tells a tale of faith, hope, or love.” (excerpt from Let My People Go). Price, a former slave and father of Charlotte, begins to tell her and us twelve beautiful Bible stories of the Old Covenant (Old Testament), stories that are connected to the revolutionary/protest movement of African American people today and in the past. These stories will be analyzed from a Messianic Judaism perspective which will illuminate and explain the historical context that these events come out of. These are Messianic stories that show how Yeshua haMashiach was at the center of these events and these stories are connected to the current times of African American people in the United States!

_____ A Paint Brush and A Pen: The Manipulation of Jesus' Image and the Saga of Race in America (MBJ Annex, Room 1)

"In a world filled with images of Jesus, this one made headlines. He stood in a stained-glass window wearing a simple white robe and a dark tunic. He held a staff in his left hand and with the knuckles of His right tapped gently on a large brown door. Wavy auburn hair fell to His shoulders, while His feet were bare. When sunlight struck the glass just so, kindness radiated from His white face and warmth from His brown eyes. This was a comforting Jesus who forgave sinners, blessed bread for the hungry, and promised peace to the anxious. For decades, He had been with this Black congregation in Birmingham, Alabama. But on one Sunday morning, September 15, 1963, terror struck. Dynamite set by White supremacists outside of Sixteenth Street Baptist Church just after 10:20 am exploded, and the face of Jesus shattered into a thousand shards of glass. In the blink of an eye, the Prince of Peace was made a casualty of Race War.” (excerpt from the book The Color of Christ) Four little Black girls were killed in this explosion! This shocked the whole country and added fuel to the Civil Rights Movement and the urgency for America to change! Join this powerful study that looks at the history of racial injustice in America and the manipulation of the image and color of Jesus to justify racism!

Thursdays (September 13- October 25, 2017) (Women’s Study)

When God Interrupts You: What Are You Gonna Do? \(7- Weeks\) (Amos Hall, Room 1)

Priscilla Shirer asks, “What do we do when God interrupts our lives? Many times, like Jonah, we run! Lifeway describes this study: “In this 7-session Bible study, Priscilla redefines interruption and shows that interruption is actually God’s invitation to do something beyond our wildest dreams. When Jonah was willing to allow God to interrupt his life, the result was revival in an entire city.” Do you have a Jonah Complex? God will never ask you to do anything that you will not be successful at and you will be richly blessed for being obedient! Join us for another power-packed Priscilla Shirer study for Women!

No Set Backs, Just Set Ups for Bless Ups: Learning from the Life of Joseph \(6- Weeks\) (MBJ Annex, Room 1)

Pastor Tony Evans writes about this study, “The biblical account of Joseph clearly demonstrates that God is at work even when life seems to be going wrong. It depicts a young man who endured betrayal, abandonment, injustice, and confusion before understanding God’s sovereign plan to redirect him from the pit to the palace. Even today it’s easy to wonder why God would allow calamity to happen or if He’s in control at all. Whether through uncontrollable circumstances or the pain of personal relationships, everyone has experienced unforeseen changes in life. This study helps believers navigate detours that may take you through trials, injustice, and even betrayal. You will be comforted and encouraged when you learn to rest in God’s redemptive plan and the hope found in God’s sovereign will.”

Men, join us for this powerful study, that looks at the life of Joseph in the Bible!
